1. Chicago, the fair city has treated us real swell
We have a great Convention and like the Fair as well.—Chorus.

CHORUS

Oh! It's coin bugs, coin bugs, coin bugs,
Yes, coin bugs and still more;
It's great to be together
And talk old coins once more.

2. We all love Henri Ripstra, the King of Chicago Coins
He has managed the entertainment, in his praises everyone joins.—Chorus.

3. The Danai's Pa and Mater, delight in Chicago lore
Emily's their best exhibit, at the School Board they're all sore.—Chorus.

4. Of Scholars Pneumismatic, we have Ragnar Cederlund,
He collects the Siegel, the Klippe and writes books as a regular stunt.—Chorus.

5. Brother Brohl has the Convention habit, his home is the town of Tiffin,
We like to see him smiling, to his cheer our hearts won't stiffen.—Chorus.

6. As chairman just graduated we cheer Nebraska Nelson
Give a rousing shout for Nels and wife, we greet them both with bells-on.—Chorus.

7. Of all the best convaners, Charlie Marcus can't be beat
We love him and his crutches and glad he didn't miss this treat.—Chorus.

8. Uncle Sam our gracious guardian, only one ex-president boasts
With Doc, Charlie, George, Frank, Mike and Farran, we have the larger hosts—Chorus.

9. Our ranks are varied and far-flung, in extent we pull no boner
We have Wilmarth from Oklahoma and Murphy from Arizona.—Chorus.

10. We're glad there are amongst us two sons of the sacred cod
Schumacher a new arrival, Morse with Lincoln as his god.—Chorus.

11. The Fair has many attractions, the South-West shows its Rodeo
The Mehl's and Billy Philpott can give us all the Kay-Oh.—Chorus.

12. Rochester has a great Coin Club, it sends its sons to us
Over Foster our fine Librarian and Ex-Pres. George we make a great fuss.—Chorus.

13. Howard Gibbs is a great collector of Chinese and other oddity
We hope he will have millions, he hails from the Smoky City.—Chorus.

14. Our crowd has a marvelous paper, it's manager is our Frank
He saved the Treasury thousands by choosing the right bank.—Chorus.

15. Our careful treasury watch-dog is Jersey City Blake
There is no Government Greenback but he could spot the fake.—Chorus.

16. The hardest worker amongst us is Secretary Wilson
Delinquent non-paying members he quickly puts the chills on.—Chorus.

17. Our biggest paper collector is Musical Al Grenelle
The Krinkle of bills of thousands is the music he loves well.—Chorus.

18. Cincinnati sends us a lawyer, Bill Schultz and his wife dear Alice
They adore our Coin Conventions so they brought their daughter Gladys.—Chorus

19. Brother Hardwick from Atlanta, is the flower of the South
He proclaims Pneumatics by his actions and also by word of mouth.—Chorus.

20. Tom Voetter reached San Diego from Uncle Sam's Diplomatic Corps
Now Chile, Curacao and Mexico will see Tom and his wife no more.—Chorus.

21. Best of all the bravest fellows, Farran Zerby took the step
We highly recommend it for Gertrude has the pep.—Chorus.

22. Conventions are good for birthdays, Gus' drinks were quite a treat
Henry Hunt we wish you good luck and oft the day repeat.—Chorus.

23. The brotherly love of Phillie, we cherish for our Mack
Of gold and cents and non-sense he gathered quite a stack.—Chorus.

24. The poets love all the audience by omissions no harm was meant
We hope you liked the evening and thought your coins well-spent.—Chorus.

25. Every lane must have a turning, every good thing has an end
Your Bard's Harp is silent, our farewell to you is sent.—Chorus.

Now the time has come to say adieu.
We've enjoyed these hours we spent with you.
How we love these ties that bind,
Friendships true are hard to find.
May the hours that we shall be apart
Bring you peace and joy, God bless your heart,
So here's my hand, old pal of mine,
Till we meet again.
